Many thanks for your signal report of 26 April 92.

You have been listening to the transmissions of Trans World Radio beamed in more than twenty languages from Swaziland (see map opposite). Trans World Radio, founded by Dr Paul E. Freed, President, owns and operates this multi-transmitter facility equipped with highly directional log periodic and certain antennas designed to cover East and Central Africa, Southern Africa, the Indian subcontinent and China.

In addition to our station you have heard from Swaziland, Trans World Radio transmits from Monte Carlo, Monaco, Bonaire, Netherlands Antilles, Cyprus, Guam and Sri Lanka. Eighty percent of the world's population is within reach of these stations. The Good News of Jesus Christ is broadcast in more than seventy languages, using five million watts of transmitter power.

Aside from the thrill of logging a new station, we hope you have enjoyed listening to our programmes and that you will become a regular listener to our broadcasts.
