We greatly appreciate your kindness in acknowledging by your Card of Dec 1-24 reception of our Services radiocast at 11-30-24

We radiocast regularly our Sunday services at 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m., C.S.T. and occasionally a Sunday afternoon concert of sacred music. Our station was installed especially for the benefit of those who, for illness or other reasons are unable to attend religious services and we are specially grateful for cards or letters from these.

Constructive suggestions for the extension of our radio service in the name of the Master and the extension of His kingdom are always welcome.

And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature.—Mark, 16:15.

Dear Sir:

You are right. This station was WBAW, and was purchased by the Tennessee Publishing Company last spring. The call letters were changed to WTNT, which stand for The Nashville, Tennessean.

We are on the air each day from 10:00 A. M. to noon; from 4:00 P. M. to 6:00 P. M.; and from 10:00 to midnight or later. Since we divide time with WLAC, we are not on the air when you hear them.

We hope you enjoyed the program, and that you will listen to us often.

Yours very truly,
