And the good news... "But as many as received Him, to them He gave the right to become children of God, even to those believe in His Name." (John 1:12)

Radio 4VEH operates under the auspices of The Oriental Missionary Society, Box A, Greenwood, IN, 46142 U.S.A.

In June 1950 Radio 4VEH began broadcasting the good news of salvation through Jesus Christ with 400 watts of power. Today, with a primary target audience of Haiti and the surrounding Caribbean area, 4VEH broadcasts in the French, Creole, Spanish and English languages with over 175 hours of weekly programming. By means of it's short wave frequencies the station is heard in many parts of the world.

THE CITADELLE

King Henri Christophe's Citadelle began after Haiti's independence in 1804. It took twenty years and 20,000 lives to build. One of the wonders of the project is that they never quite finished it.
